

Upcoming changes in the board

The faces in the IFES board will change a bit starting 1 January 2019:

- New IFES president will be Peter Theodorides from Greece. Until then he was vice president membership.
- Voicu Sferdianu will become past president.
- John Pavek will become IFES vice president membership/marketing.
- Ninni Arion was elected as member of the extended board. She will take care of the just established YIFES = Young IFES.
- And we have to say bye-bye to Bruno Meissner who will leave the Board after being 4 years IFES president and additional 4 years IFES past president.

Thank you, Voicu Sferdianu!

During his four years presidency, Sferdianu wanted to achieve some major goals:

1. Financial stability;
2. Improved internal + external communications
3. Professional management
4. Next level of World Summits.

In his speech he thanked the audience for the trust he received four years ago and the possibility he was given to work on this aims: "I am proud to see how our association has grown and is respected", he said.
